one hundred, but the Council may register an increase in the number of members whenever and as often as they think fit.

4. The subscribers to the Memorandum of Association of the Company and such other persons as have been admitted to membership in accordance with these presents and none other shall be members of the Company and shall be entered into the Register of Members accordingly.
5. (a) The Company shall have two classes of members, namely Full Members and Associate Members.

(b) The special restriction of the Associate Members is that they shall have no right to vote at General Meetings (although they shall have the right to receive notice of, attend and speak at the same).
6. (a) The members of the Company (save the Subscribers) shall be such persons as may be nominated in writing to the Council by the Nominators and shall be approved by the Council.

(b) A Full Member Nominator shall only be entitled to nominate Full Members and shall only be entitled to have one Full Member as his nominee at any one time. An Associate Member Nominator shall only be entitled to nominate Associate Members and shall only be entitled to have one Associate Member as his nominee at any one time. A Nominator shall be entitled to revoke his nomination at any time by giving notice in writing to the Company and upon receipt of such notice by the Company such nominee shall thereupon automatically cease to be a member. A Nominator shall be entitled to nominate himself as a member.
7. The Council shall have absolute power and authority to refuse any nomination of a member without giving any reason for such.
8. Each Subscriber shall be a Full Member and shall be deemed to have been elected as a Full Member Nominator pursuant to Article 11 and to have nominated himself as a member pursuant to Article 6(b).
9. Membership shall ipso facto cease if:
 - (a) being a body corporate a resolution is passed for the member to be wound up.
 - (b) the member resigns by giving not less than three months' notice in writing thereof to the Secretary.
 - (c) being an individual he dies or is adjudicated bankrupt or becomes of unsound mind.
 - (d) at a Meeting of the Council of which the member shall have had 14 clear days' written notice of the intention to move a resolution, and at which the member shall have been given an opportunity to be heard, the Council resolve by a majority of at least three-fourths of the votes cast at the Meeting that it is undesirable in the interests of the Company that such member remain a member.

Without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing for the purposes of any aforesaid resolution it shall be deemed that it is undesirable in the interests of the Company that a member remains a member if he does not comply with such provisions as the Council may from time to time prescribe regarding confidentiality.

- (e) if a member neglects for six months to pay any subscriptions payable by such member or persistently neglects or refuses to pay other monies which may be due to the Company.
 - (f) the Nominator who nominated him ceases to be a Nominator.
 - (g) the Nominator who nominated him revokes his nomination pursuant to Article 6(b).
10. Subject as herein mentioned it shall rest with the Council to determine the terms and conditions on which subsequent members shall from time to time be admitted.
11. Subject to Article 8 the Nominators shall be elected by the Council. The Council shall elect each Nominator either as a Full Member Nominator or an Associate Member Nominator.
- 12.(a) Only an individual or individuals, limited company, or corporation which can show that his or their activities cover manufacturing or supplying goods anywhere in the world shall be eligible to be a Full Member Nominator.
- (b) Only an individual or individuals, limited company or corporation whose principal business is that of a lawyer, trademark agent or patent agent and who has or have a professional interest in representing clients in anti-counterfeiting activities anywhere in the world shall be eligible to be an Associate Member Nominator.
- (c) Only an individual or individuals, limited company or corporation whose principal business is that of providing services or technologies to anti-counterfeiting activities shall be eligible to be Affiliate Members.
- (d) Only individuals from non-commercial and non-profit making organisations shall be eligible to be Individual Members.
13. The forms of application to be a Nominator, the status of the Nominator (subject to Article 12) and the manner of the election shall be such as the Council may from time to time decide. The Council shall have absolute power and authority to refuse any application to be a Nominator irrespective of qualification and without giving reason for such refusal.
14. Subject as herein mentioned, it shall rest with the Council to determine the terms and conditions on which subsequent Nominators shall from time to time be admitted.
15. A Nominator shall immediately notify in writing to the Company if, being a Full Member Nominator, he shall cease to be eligible under Article 12(a) or being an Associate Member Nominator he shall cease to be eligible under 12(b). Upon receipt by the Company of such notice he shall cease to be a Full Member Nominator or Associate Member Nominator as the case may be.
16. A person's position as a Nominator shall ipso facto cease if:
- (a) Being a body corporate, a resolution is passed for it to be wound up.
 - (b) He resigns by giving not less than three months' notice in writing thereof to the Secretary.
 - (c) Being an individual he dies or is adjudicated bankrupt or becomes of unsound mind.

- (d) At a Meeting of the Council of which a Nominator shall have had 14 clear days' written notice of the intention to move a resolution, and at which the Nominator shall have been given an opportunity to be heard, the Council resolve by a majority of at least three-fourths of the votes cast at the Meeting that it is undesirable in the interests of the Company that such Nominator remains a Nominator. Without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing for the purposes of any aforesaid resolution it may be deemed that it is undesirable in the interests of the Company that a Nominator remains a Nominator if he (including any representative of a corporate Nominator), or any director employee or partner of his shall breach such (if any) provisions as the Council may from time to time prescribe regarding confidentiality or if the Nominator fails to comply with Article 15.

DUTIES OF MEMBERS & SUBSCRIPTION MONIES

17. Every member of the Company shall be bound:
- (a) To pay to the Company such entrance fee (if any) and such reasonable annual subscription as shall from time to time be determined by the Council.
 - (b) To observe the provisions of these presents and of the Memorandum of Association and all the bye-laws rules and regulations of the Company for the time being in force.
18. As a condition of membership a member or person claiming under a member shall have no right or claim against the Company or any of its officers or servants for loss or damage to person or property resulting from any statement opinion or advice given by or on behalf of the Company.
19. The rights and privileges of a member shall be personal to him and shall not be transferable by operation of law or otherwise howsoever.
- 20.(a) A member ceasing to be a member by virtue of (b) (d) or (e) of Article 9 shall not, upon such cessation be entitled under any conditions to repayment of any subscription or contribution or any part thereof whether paid in respect of the current year or for a year or years in advance.
- (b) A member ceasing to be a member by virtue of (a) (c) (g) of Article 9 shall be entitled to the return of a due proportion of such member's subscription having regard to the unexpired time for which it is paid.
 - (c) A member ceasing to be a member by virtue of Article 9(f) shall, if the Nominator ceased to be a Nominator by virtue of (b) or (d) of Article 16 not be entitled under any conditions to repayment of any subscription or contribution or any part thereof whether paid in respect of the current year or for a year or years in advance.
 - (d) A member ceasing to be a member by virtue of Article 9(f) shall if the Nominator ceased to be a Nominator by virtue of (a) or (c) of Article 16 or Article 15 be entitled to the return of a due proportion of such member's subscription having regard to the unexpired time for which it is paid.

GENERAL MEETINGS

21. The Company shall in each year hold a General Meeting as its Annual General Meeting in addition to any other General Meeting in that year and shall specify the Meeting as such in notices calling it; and not more than fifteen months shall elapse between the date of one Annual General Meeting of the Company and that of the next. The Annual General Meeting shall be held at such time and place as the Council shall appoint.
22. All General Meetings other than Annual General Meetings shall be called Extraordinary General Meetings.
23. The Council may whenever it thinks fit convene an Extraordinary General Meeting and Extraordinary General Meetings shall also be convened on such requisition or in default may be convened by such requisitionists as provided by Section 132 of the Companies Act 1948. If at any time there are not within the United Kingdom sufficient Council Members capable of acting to form a quorum any Council Members or any two Full Members of the Company may convene an Extraordinary General Meeting in the same manner as nearly as possible as that in which General Meetings may be convened by the Council and to be held at a reasonable time and place.
24. An Annual General Meeting and a Meeting called for the passing of a Special Resolution shall be called by twenty-one days' notice in writing at the least and a General Meeting of the Company other than an Annual General Meeting or a Meeting for the passing of a Special Resolution shall be called by fourteen days' notice in writing at the least. The notice shall be exclusive of the day on which it is served or deemed to be served and of the day for which it is given and shall specify the place the day and the hour of meeting and in case of special business the general nature of that business and shall be given in manner hereinafter mentioned or in such other manner if any to such persons (including the Auditors) as are under these presents or the Acts entitled to receive such notices from the Company.

PROVIDED THAT a General Meeting of the Company shall notwithstanding that it is called by shorter notice than that specified in this Article be deemed to have been duly called if it is so agreed:

- (a) In the case of a Meeting called as the Annual General Meeting, by all the members entitled to attend and vote thereat; and
 - (b) In the case of any other Meeting by a majority in number of the members having a right to attend and vote at the General Meeting being a majority together representing not less than ninety-five per cent of the total voting rights at that Meeting of all the members.
25. The accidental omission to give notice of a General Meeting to or the non-receipt of a notice of a General Meeting by any person entitled to receive notice shall not invalidate the proceedings at that General Meeting.

PROCEEDINGS AT GENERAL MEETINGS

26. The business of an Annual General Meeting shall be:
- (a) To receive and consider the income and expenditure account the balance sheet and the reports of the Council and the Auditors.

- (b) To elect Council Members in the place of those retiring.
- (c) To appoint Auditors and fix their remuneration. All other business transacted at an Annual General Meeting and all business transacted at an Extraordinary General Meeting shall be deemed special.
27. Every General Meeting of the Company shall be presided over by the Chairman of the Council and in his absence the meeting shall elect a Chairman from among the Council Members then present or in the absence of any other Council Members from the Full Members in attendance.
28. No business shall be transacted at any General Meeting unless a quorum of members is present in person or by proxy at the time when the meeting proceeds to business; save as herein otherwise provided the greater of 5 Full Members or 10% of the Full Members of the Company (rounded up to the nearest whole number) shall be a quorum.
29. If the quorum is not present within half an hour from the time appointed for a General Meeting then if convened upon the requisition of members the Meeting shall be dissolved but in any other case it shall stand adjourned to the same day in the next week at the same time and place and if at such adjourned meeting a quorum is not present within half an hour from the time appointed for the meeting any two Full Members present in person or by proxy shall be a quorum and may transact the business for which the meeting was called.
30. The Chairman may with the consent of the General Meeting at which a quorum is present (and shall if so directed by the Meeting) adjourn the Meeting from time to time and from place to place but no business shall be transacted at any adjourned Meeting other than the business left unfinished at the Meeting from which the adjournment took place. If a Meeting is adjourned for thirty days or more notice of the adjourned Meeting shall be given as in the case of an original Meeting but save as aforesaid it shall not be necessary to give notice of an adjournment or of the business to be transacted at an adjourned Meeting.
31. At any General Meeting a resolution put to the vote of the Meeting shall be decided on a show of hands unless a poll is (before or on the declaration of the result of the show of hands) demanded:
- (a) By the Chairman; or
- (b) By at least three Full Members present in person or by proxy; or
- (c) By any Full Member or Full Members present in person or by proxy representing ten per cent of the Full Members of the Company.

Unless a poll be so demanded a declaration by the Chairman that a resolution has on a show of hands been carried unanimously or by a particular majority or lost or not carried by a particular majority and an entry to that effect in the book containing the Minutes of proceedings of the Company shall be conclusive evidence of the fact without proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour of or against such resolution.

The demand for a poll may be withdrawn and a demand so withdrawn shall not be taken to have invalidated the result of a show of hands declared before the demand was made.

Except as provided in Article 34 if a poll is duly demanded it shall be taken in such manner as the Chairman directs and the result of the poll shall be deemed to be the resolution of the Meeting at which the poll was demanded.

33. In the case of an equality of votes the Chairman of the meeting shall both on a show of hands and at a poll have a casting vote in addition to any vote to which he may be entitled as a Full Member.
34. A poll demanded on the election of a Chairman or on a question of adjournment shall be taken forthwith. A poll demanded on any other question shall be taken at such time as the Chairman of the Meeting directs and any business other than that upon which a poll has been demanded may be proceeded with pending the taking of the poll.

No notice need be given of a poll not taken forthwith if the time and place at which it is to be taken are announced at the meeting in respect of which it is demanded. In any other case at least 7 clear days' notice shall be given specifying the time and place at which the poll is to be taken.

35. Directors and employees of corporate Nominators and individual Nominators and employees and partners of individual Nominators and such other persons approved in advance by the Council shall be entitled to attend (but not receive notice of) General Meetings of the Company without any rights of voting thereat, but the members present at any meeting may exclude any such persons who are not members from such meeting by a resolution passed by a majority of the members present and entitled to vote and no special notice shall be required before the consideration of such resolution. Provided this article shall not authorise the exclusion of proxies in any manner whatsoever.

VOTES OF MEMBERS

36. Subject to Articles 33 and 37, on a show of hands every Full Member present in person shall have one vote and on a poll every Full Member present in person or by proxy shall have one vote. No other member shall be entitled to vote.
37. No member shall be entitled to vote either in person or by proxy if any moneys presently payable by him to the Company is in arrear for the period of three months from its due date.
38. The instrument appointing a proxy shall be in writing under the hand of the appointor or of his attorney duly authorised in writing or if the appointor is a corporation either under its seal or under the hand of an officer or attorney duly authorised.

A proxy must be a director or employee of a corporate Full Member Nominator or an individual Full Member Nominator or an employee or partner of an individual Full Member Nominator.

39. In the case of joint members the vote of the senior who tenders a vote whether in person or by proxy shall be accepted to the exclusion of the votes of the other joint members and seniority shall be determined by the order in which the names of the members stand in the Register of Members.

- 40. The instrument appointing a proxy and the power of attorney or other authority if any under which it is signed or a notarially certified or office copy of the power or authority shall be deposited at the office or at such other place within the United Kingdom as is specified for that purpose in the notice convening the Meeting not less than forty-eight hours before the time for holding the Meeting or adjourned Meeting at which the person named in the instrument proposes to vote or in the case of a poll not less than twenty-four hours before the time appointed for taking of the poll and in default the instrument of proxy shall not be treated as valid.
- 41. An instrument appointing a proxy shall be in the following form or a form as near thereto as circumstances admit:

THE ANTI COUNTERFEITING GROUP

I, of in the County of.....being a Full Member of the above-named Company hereby appoint of
or failing him
 as my proxy to vote for me on my behalf at the (Annual or Extraordinary or adjourned as the case may be) General Meeting of the Company to be held on the day of 20-- and at any adjournment thereof.
 Signed this day of 20--

This form is to be used *in favour of/against the resolution. Unless otherwise instructed the proxy will vote as he thinks fit.

Strike out whichever is not desired.*

- 42. The instrument appointing a proxy shall be deemed to confer authority to demand or join in demanding a poll.
- 43. A vote given in accordance with the terms of an instrument of proxy shall be valid notwithstanding the previous death or insanity of the principal or revocation of the proxy or of the authority under which the proxy was executed provided that no intimation in writing of such death insanity or revocation as aforesaid shall have been received by the Company at the Office before the commencement of the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the proxy is used.

THE COUNCIL

44. The business of the Company shall be managed by a Council.
45. The number of Council Members shall unless and until otherwise determined by the General Meeting consist of not more than fourteen and not less than six persons.
46. No person other than a director or employee of a corporate Full Member Nominator, or an individual Full Member Nominator or an employee or partner of an individual Full Member Nominator shall be a Council Member.
- 47.(a) The number of the first Council Members and the names of the first Council Members shall be determined by the Subscribers of the Memorandum of Association or a majority of them.

(b) Subject to paragraph (a) of this Article and Articles 49 and 50 all Council Members shall be elected by the members at the Annual General Meeting.
48. At each Annual General Meeting in addition to those Council Members retiring under Articles 49 and 50 one third of the Council Members (not including those retiring under Articles 49 and 50) shall retire or if their number is not a multiple of three then the number nearest to but not exceeding one third shall retire. The Council Members to retire in every year shall be those who have been longest in office since their last appointment or reappointment (as the case may be) but as between persons whose relevant appointment or reappointment shall have occurred on the same day those to retire shall (unless they otherwise agree amongst themselves) be determined by those whose surnames stand first in alphabetical order. All retiring Council Members subject to Article 46 shall be eligible for reselection.
49. The Council shall be entitled to appoint a person qualified under Article 46 as a Council Member to fill a casual vacancy howsoever caused amongst the Council Members or as an additional Council Member. The person or persons so appointed shall hold office until the Annual General Meeting next after the appointment whereat he or they shall retire but subject to Article 46 shall be eligible for re-election.
50. Without prejudice to the powers of the Council under Article 49 the Company in General Meeting may appoint any person qualified under Article 46 to be a Council Member to fill a casual vacancy howsoever caused amongst the Council Members or as an additional Council Member. The person or persons appointed shall hold office until the Annual General Meeting next after the appointment whereat he or they shall retire but subject to Article 46 shall be eligible for reselection. Every Full Member shall be entitled to nominate persons qualified under Article 46 for Council Member. Each such nomination must be proposed and seconded at the General Meeting.
51. Along with the notice convening the Annual General Meeting the Secretary shall send to all members a list specifying the names of the persons retiring at the Meeting who offer themselves for reselection as Council Members. In addition, every Full Member of the Company shall be entitled to nominate persons qualified under Article 46 for Council Members. Each such nomination must be proposed and seconded at the Annual General Meeting.

52. The office of a Council Member shall be vacated:
- (a) if he becomes a bankrupt or makes any arrangement or composition with his creditors;
 - (b) an order is made by a court of competent jurisdiction by reason of his mental disorder for his detention or for the appointment of any person to exercise powers with respect to his property or affairs.
 - (c) if by notice in writing to the Council he resigns his office;
 - (d) if at least three-fourths of all the other Council Members resolve in writing that he be removed.
 - (e) if he ceases to be a director by virtue of any provision of the Acts or he becomes prohibited by law from being a director.
 - (f) if he be absent from the meetings of the Council for more than six consecutive meetings without the consent of the Council.
 - (g) he ceases to comply with Article 46.
53. The Company may by ordinary resolution of which special notice has been given in accordance with Section 142 of the Companies Act 1948 remove any Council Member from office pursuant to Section 184 of the Companies Act 1948 before the expiration of his period of office notwithstanding anything in these presents or in any agreement between the Company and such Council Members.
54. No person shall be or become incapable of being appointed a Council Member by reason only of his having attained the age of seventy or any other age nor shall any special notice be required in connection with the appointment or the approval of the appointment of such person, and no Council Member shall vacate his office at any time by reason only of the fact that he has attained the age of 70 or any other age.
55. No act or resolution of the Council shall be invalidated by reason of the existence of any vacancy or vacancies among Council Members but if the number of the Council Members shall be reduced to less than the minimum number of Council Members fixed pursuant to Article 45 the continuing numbers may act for the purposes only of appointing new Council Members or summoning a General Meeting of the Company.

POWERS OF THE COUNCIL

56. In addition to the powers and authorities by these presents or otherwise expressly conferred upon the Council the Council may exercise all such powers and do all such acts and things as may be exercised or done by the Company and are not hereby or by statute expressly directed or required to be exercised or done by the Company in General Meeting but subject nevertheless to the provision of any Acts of Parliament for the time being in force and of these presents.
